Participating

The Participating network is our broadest access network. Like a "network of networks", when you choose the Participating network it's like buying all three of the networks above in one complete package. As it includes all of the healthcare providers with whom we contract throughout the state of Utah, it is generally the most expensive network option.

The Regence Participating network provides access to all hospitals in the state of Utah.

Decide which network is right for your group

Whether you select a network based on geographic location, group preference, or any number of other factors, you can feel secure knowing that your employees will have access to quality health care coverage throughout Utah.
