YOUR SPECIAL ENROLLMENT PERIOD RIGHTS

For individuals who are eligible for enrollment in a group health plan:

If you are declining enrollment for yourself or one or more of your dependents (including your spouse) because of other health insurance or group health plan coverage, you may be able to enroll the individual(s) whom you declined to enroll in this plan if the individual(s) lose eligibility for that other coverage (or if, in the case of group health plan coverage, the employer stops contributing toward the individual's (individuals') other coverage.) However, you must request enrollment within 30 days after the individual's (individuals') other coverage ends (or after the employer stops contributing toward the other coverage).

If you are declining enrollment for yourself or one or more of your dependents (including your spouse) and you later are notified that you, he, she, or they are eligible for premium assistance under Title 26, Chapter 18 of the Utah Code (the "UPP" program), the individual(s) eligible for premium assistance may enroll by making a request within 30 days of receiving initial written notice of the eligibility for premium assistance. That enrollment will be subject to all other terms of eligibility and coverage and shall be effective no sooner than the first day of the month beginning immediately following request for enrollment.

In addition, if you gain a new dependent as a result of marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, you may be able to enroll yourself and your dependents. However, you must request enrollment within 30 days after the marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption.
